Per your note:

This is a good report and system. Probably better than most other agencies re counseling low performers. However, I don't agree with the primary recommendation: that you review this with the Executive Committee—that will have little/no effect. Instead, I recommend that you tell:

- Office of Personnel to prepare a DDCI meno to Heads of Career Services on this subject, giving them a pat of the head, reinforcing the necessity to keep on doing this, and providing as future guidelines the recommendations in 6.b, c, and d.
- o After that is sent, you could mention it in the EC marries to bring it to their attention and reinforce priority.
- 2. At the second FY80 quarterly meetings which should be in March 1980, we should review directorate achievements against the 1980 APP. That will be mid-year point. We can have the Office of Personnel prepare an analysis before then. We can tell directorates the in November/December 1979 when we send out the schedule for the second quarter goals reviews.
